

Battle of Britain Display

I really enjoyed the red arrow display because of all the tricks and the different colours.

Dear Parents

We are lucky to have been enjoying such beautiful weather for the first full week of term. I hope this continues through the week end to allow us all to enjoy the delights of Guernsey outdoors. Congratulations to all pupils, old and new who have achieved so much in the first days at school.

It has been a pleasure to meet so many of you this week and a privilege to welcome your children back to Elizabeth College Junior School.

The children have all participated in assemblies today to celebrate their hard work and achievements. The pupils are living up to their target, to AIM HIGH and BE KIND.

Attached are details of an exciting expedition and fundraising event from aspiring botanist and former ECJS pupil George Garnett. I would urge you to take time to read his letter and invitation.

Dear Parents,

I am a Year 11 student at Elizabeth College. As an aspiring botanist I am currently fundraising for a trip to the Amazon next summer and trying to raise additional money to make a donation to the Crees Foundation in Peru, recently highlighted in the BBC2 documentary, 'I Bought a Rainforest'.

As part of my fundraising I have been fortunate to have the support of Floral Guernsey which has enabled me to host a talk by James Wong on Saturday 27th September. You may recognise James from presenting programmes such as Countryfile and the Chelsea Garden Show, he's a great speaker and I hope that you will consider supporting this event.

The talk is called 'Maximum Flavour, Minimum Labour' and will look at how you can combine scientific techniques to grow better produce but with less effort!

The following link will take you to the Floral Guernsey website which gives full details of the talk and the other events taking place: <http://www.floralguernsey.co.uk/event/james-wong-maximum-flavour-minimum-labour> To find out more about the Crees Foundation visit their website:

Thank you in advance for your support.
