Headlines

I must start this newsletter with some news from the previous week. At the very end of the week I settled into my chair at the Eisteddfod for our final entry in the Language section. Nothing prepared me or the rest of the audience for what was to come. Brilliant does not cover it. Fluent French Fun with a message. Not only did they win the class they were also awarded 'Honours.' Madame Santi you are a genius.

Whilst a quieter week on the surface (just a Tudor day and a Year 1 banquet!), preparations for Wind in the Willows are coming to performance point. From the acting to the music; the dance to scenery; to the programme and the costumes and everything else, I can only marvel at the team effort that goes into this production. I am looking forward to Monday.

Aim High, Be Kind, Be Brave.
Richard Fyfe
