Welcome

Welcome to the first edition of 'ECJS News', bringing all our news and the calendar for the week ahead under one roof.

I am delighted to see that the pupils have settled quickly to the new school term and they are already enjoying the challenges of 2015. The children have been working very hard this week and Friday assemblies earlier today, have been an excellent opportunity to share some of the successes of the last 7 days. The Acorn House 'Celebration Assembly' in the morning and the Beechwood 'Fuzzy Bug Friday Assembly' help us all to focus on our key goals; to Aim High, Be Kind and Be Brave.

Very best wishes for the week end.

J Walton

Congratulations

I hope you will join us in congratulating Mr and Mrs Reed on the forthcoming arrival of their first child in July. Very best wishes from all of us.

NSPCC Advice for Parents

The NSPCC have launched a new campaign to give 'straightforward, no-nonsense advice to help parents keep their children safe online'. Although this particular campaign is aimed at parents of 8 to 12 year olds, there is plenty of other information on their website suitable for parents of older children. Click on this link to access the campaign <http://www.nspcc.org.uk/preventing-abuse/keeping-children-safe/share-aware/>
