JOKE CORNER

What did the beach say to the wave?...

'Long tide, no sea.'

What does seaweed say when it's stuck at the bottom of the sea?

'Kelp! Kelp!'

Shakespeare rocks

WHERE could you find a bear, a bard and some Beechwood pupils? At the dress rehearsal for their fantastic musical, Shakespeare Rocks, of course. I trod the boards with my young thespian friends, Katrina, Amelia, Emily, Edmund (who played the great man himself) and Ethan. The musical followed the story of how Shakespeare started in Warwickshire and went on to the Globe Theatre in London, as well as highlighting some of the characters in his life and some of his works. All the world's a stage and I certainly enjoyed my time on this one.
